An ordinance creating a Wimbishville City Council Rules of Procedure establishing the procedure for vacancies.

Whereas the Wimbishville City Council recognizes that the it needs a proper rules of procedure to set precedent going further
Whereas the City Council acknowledges the need to avoid legislative deadlock

NOW THEREFORE,
THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF WIMBISHVILLE DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Title and Purpose

(a) This ordinance shall hereby be known as and may be cited as the Wimbishville Council Rules of Procedure
(b) The purpose of this ordinance is to establish the procedures and rules for the supervision of Wimbishville City Council meetings, otherwise known as weekly meetings of Sim-Civics.

Section 2. Definitions and General Provisions

(a) “City Council” means the City Council of Wimbishville
(b) “Sponsor of an ordinance” means the person(s) who write the ordinance before submission to the Council
(c) “Session” when referred to in all lowercase, refers to a regular meeting of the Wimbishville City Council, otherwise known as Sim-Civics.
(d) “Fractional vote” means the divide of whole votes into different fractions.

Section 3. General Meeting Rules

(a) Regular meetings must span at the maximum of the 1 hour allotted by the Harvard-Westlake Lunch Break.
(b) If a special meeting is called outside of the regular break, it has no specific time limit unless announced by the Speaker of the Council.
(c) If the Council has no outstanding business to fill outside of the legislative agenda, the Council must spend the session debating each item on the legislative agenda numbered down.
(d) Members of the Council can only submit ordinances for the next session unless the Speaker of the Council allows for immediate submissions.
(e) All who vote on an ordinance shall only have one (1) vote. There shall be no fractional votes.

Section 4. Ordinance Procedure

(a) Each bill must follow the following format of proceedings:
    - (i) The sponsor or someone speaking on their behalf makes opening remarks, with a recommended time limit of 1 minute
    - (ii) If there are multiple sponsors, the sponsors must choose only one sponsor to make the opening remark
    - (iii) The Speaker of the Council allows for comments from up to three lawmakers who wish to speak with a recommended time limit of 30 seconds
    - (iv) The sponsor(s) or someone speaking on their behalf make one rebuttal with a recommended time limit of 30 seconds
    - (v) All present Council members vote on the ordinance in order of roll call

(b) All speaking times are unlimited but a speech may be forcefully ended by a parliamentarian after the recommended time limit is elapsed should the parliamentarian decide the speech has veered off-topic or a seven second pause in speaking has occurred

(c) When a council member is speaking, the parliamentarian has the right to rid any disruptive council members of their speaking privileges for the session.

(d) Ordinances must be taken to the floor one at a time. Debate on multiple ordinances is not allowed

(e) Ordinance procedure is overwritten if the Speaker of the Council declares a Special Quick Session in accordance with Section 5.

Section 5. Special Quick Sessions

(a) The Speaker of the Council may declare a Special Quick Session (SQS) if the legislative agenda has more than 8 items on it at the beginning of the session.

(b) The Council may override the SQS declaration with a majority vote.

(c) Alternatively, the Council may take 2 motions per session on the declaration of a Special Quick Session. A motion to declare a Special Quick Session must be given with a stated reason and a number of bills to apply the Session to, and an opposing council member may take 30 recommended seconds to rebut the motion. A motion to declare a Special Quick Session may pass with a majority vote.

(d) In a Special Quick Session, regular ordinance procedure is overwritten. When a bill begins debate under the Special Quick Session, all council members have 30 seconds to read over the bill. Voting on the bill immediately commences once 30 seconds have passed.

(e) If the Speaker of the Council declares a SQS, it lasts until the City Council session ends or the Speaker declares the SQS to an end. The council then continues under regular rules of procedure.
(f) If the Council declares an SQS, it lasts until the City Council session ends or once the Council has debated on the number of bills specified in the motion declaration.

Section 6. Severability
If any provision of this ordinance or any portion thereof is held invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 7. Effective Date
This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon passage.

Section 8. Certification
The City Council shall certify the passage of this ordinance and ensure its publication as required by law.
